Why did you chose AMBS?

"I studied my undergraduate at AMBS and I was familiar with the University and the prestige so I thought studying this master's would not only enhance my career prospects but also specialize in a particular field."

"Make the most of the huge amount of people from all over the world you meet and the ability to share your culture and get to know other cultures has been one of the things that I will never forget."

How did your time at AMBS help you in your current role?

"My time at university has helped me not only put into practice my knowledge but also through the team work and communication skills developed have helped me a huge amount in my current role."

"I think the main highlight of my programme was the diversity within it, different people from all over the world sharing a classroom was truly amazing."
